

About IRD-GE

The International Institute for Rights and Development – Geneva (IRD-GE) is a Swiss NGO established in January 2011 with the aim to enhance and support both human rights and development by adopting new strategies and policies for real changes.

- We promote capacity building.
- We concentrate on cooperation between the private and the public sector.
- We provide technical and humanitarian assistance in developing countries.

IRD-GE's Trainers:

Our training team is composed of experts working with international organizations, academia, governments and the civil society.

Follow us on

“Continuous learning is a key of success. Our strategy is to provide you with the best skills to tackle your challenges on the effectiveness of your humanitarian work.”

– Ms. Suhair SALIM, President IRDG

The International Institute for Rights and Development – Geneva

37-39 Rue de Vermont
P. O. Box 110 –1211
Geneva 20, Switzerland
Tel: +41 22 734 83 20
Fax: +41 22 734 83 21
Email: training@irdge.ch

IRD-GE TRAINING PROGRAMS

❖ Capacity Building Activities for Humanitarian Professionals

❖ Government Delegates

❖ Civil Society and Students

UN HUMAN RIGHTS MECHANISMS

This course enables human rights defenders to learn about the UN human rights system and engage with the mechanisms thanks to practical information; training, support and assistance to enable them to better interact with the system.

Organized in parallel with the UN Human Rights Council session at the Palais des Nations in Geneva, the participants have the occasion to attend some sessions and meet with relevant human rights experts and mandate holders from the UN.

A networking event will be arranged for sustainable communications between the participants and Geneva based civil society and Human Rights Institutions.

Designed for:

Interested students or professionals with political, social and/or economic background, civil society.

When: 5 days in March, June, September

Fees: 1000CHF (600CHF for students)

Location: Geneva – Switzerland

SOCIAL MEDIA AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

This course increases capacities in managing the communication activities of your organization. It will increase participants' security on the Web. The course teaches on how to respect the existing legislation by including a legal module.

Participants are provided with guided exercises and build practical social media marketing and social media communications skills.

The number of participants is relatively small to keep the training interactive and tailored.

Designed for:

Interested students, trade associations, bloggers and professionals with political, social and/or economic background, civil society, youth and senior activists.

When: 3 days in August

Fees: 500EUR (300EUR for students)

Location: Lyon- France

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

The general objective of this course is to train participants in project management and apply its principles to their own project.

It will provide the tools to understand a project cycle management process, from the strategic plan to the monitoring and finally the evaluation.

Participants will learn how to identify the key elements of project management across the full lifecycle: initiate, plan, execute and close projects. The workshop is designed to enable participants to successfully execute strategy, apply concepts, and gain practical knowledge.

Designed for:

Interested professionals with political, social and/or economic background, working in a non-profit organization.

When: 5 days

Fees: 1200 CHF (700 CHF for students)

Location: Geneva - Switzerland